MENUS PLAISIRS UNE GALERIE INSPIRANTE

DE 10 ANS DANS LA RUE PIÉTONNE DE GSTAAD, Rassemble les coups de cœur CAROLINE FREYMOND, SA FONDATRICE nt les modèles raffinés du 18<sup>e</sup> siècle. son côté, Marie-Dominique Saramito oposera de nouveaux objets, composés notamment de velours ottomans brodés, de corail et autres matières précieuses. Ces pièces baroque et foisonnante, inspirée d'onirisme et d'enchantement.

Tertius, pour sa part, sera de retour avec un déploiement de verres de Bohême, sans compter sa sélection renouvelée d'objets d'art

MENUS PLAISIRS INSPIRING GALLERY

THIS ADDRESS, ESTABLISHED FOR MORE THAN TEN YEARS IN GSTAAD'S PEDESTRIAN STREET, OFFERS THE FAVOURITES ARTICLES OF CAROLINE FREYMOND, ITS FOUNDER.

This Genevan lawyer has been devoting herself for quite some time to her artistic passions, bringing together, either by chance or by choice, carefully selected antique furnitures, exceptional decorative objects, or contemporary design, from here and abroad, in an eclectic selection of finds from yesterday and today.

During the 2018-2019 winter season, discover the timeless porcelain flowers of Samuel Mazy, with new matte and delicate productions; the creations of Didier Gardillou, another porcelain "florise" but also "gardener" porcelain of vegetables, fruits and trompe l'œil plates, skillfully revisiting their refined models of the eighteenth century.
Marie-Dominique Saramito offers new objects, notably composed of embroidered Ottoman velvet, coral and other precious materials, reflecting all the momentum of her rich, baroque imagination, inspired by fantasy and enchantment.
Tertius is back with a whole array of Bohemian glasses, not to mention a selection of new objets d'art and curiosities.
Finally, Menus Plaisirs will also showcase furnitures and objects specially made for Gstaad by French designer Hervé van der Straeten; exceptional pieces of furniture, in "pietra dura", designed by Raphaël Chalmin; and - last but not the least! - various imaginative creations by paper queen, Isabelle de Borchgrave. She fashions costumes, folded pictures and other wonderful creations full of wit and seduction using her nimble fingers.
Menus Plaisirs enthusiastically stages these winter choices, inviting curious fans and amateurs to share its new discoveries.
